SCHLEY AS PRESIDENT.

Crocker Says the Admiral Would Make a Strong Candidate.

Indianapolis, December 18.—At French Link Springs today Richard Crocker expressed a very decided opinion that Admiral Schley would make a strong Presidential candidate in 1904, and that the probability all favor a boom for him in the East, with a strong feeling both in the South and in the West. He expressed the opinion that Congress would not interfere in the matter in any way and that this would be to the advantage of Schley and the Democratic party, for action would be tantamount to an endorsement of the majority verdict and thus commit the Republican party to it.

While he did not express himself definitely upon the question of the second place, his idea seemed to be that the man for the vice-presidency should be from the South and that he should be one who did service in the Cuban campaign.

GIVES GLORY TO SCHLEY.

Captain of the Colon Says Dewey's Praise is Merited.

Madrid, Dec. 17.—Captain Diaz Moren, who commanded the Colon at the battle of Santiago, says that Admiral Sampson took no active part in the Santiago fight.

"Both the Iowa and Brooklyn," says Captain Moren, "fought the Maria Teresa, which seven minutes after it was afire. My ship, the Colon, appeared then, firing her port artillery against the Iowa, which not moving quickly enough would have been sunk by the Colon had not the Brooklyn fought with the Colon. It would have been unnecessary temerity on Schley's part to have approached nearer to the Colon: because the Brooklyn had guns of twenty centimeters, while the Colon's were only fifteen centimeters.

"Evidently the credit of the first part of the battle, during which the Maria Teresa and the Viscaya were placed hors de combat, belongs to Schley. I think Admiral Dewey's praise to Schley is just."

Chinese Exclusion.

Washington, December 17.—One of the needs of the hour in the Chinese Exclusion situation here is a forthright determination of the Westerners to stand for simple renewal of the Geary Act. One of the dangers is the proneness to strive for "records" by asking for something different.

A number of the exclusion bills already introduced purport to be stronger than the present law; and studied effort is being made by friends of an exclusion policy to crowd these "stronger" features approved by the caucus of the members of Congress from the Pacific Coast. There is not one of these "stronger" bills which does not at the outset open up possibilities of litigation, and in some cases grave constitutional problems are presented. It is easy to see that even the best of them would give the Chinese a lot of opportunities for renewing their old misuse of the courts.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Charles Emory Smith of Philadelphia has tendered to the President his formal resignation as Postmaster General, to take effect early next month, and Henry C. Payne of Wisconsin, vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, has accepted the tender of the office, to which he will be nominated immediately after the holiday recess. Smith has agreed to remain until January 15th if necessary, but will return immediately thereafter to Philadelphia to resume the editorship of the Philadelphia Press.

phia to resume the editorship of the Philadelphia Press.

TO SUPPRESS BOUNTIES.

International Sugar Conference May Adopt a Penal Clause.

Brussels, Dec. 18.—It appeared from the views expressed at this morning's session of the International Sugar Conference that the delegates would not object to a penal clause as a guarantee for carrying out the arrangements which may be reached by the conference for the suppression of bounties. Although the delegates are chary of giving information they now seem generally satisfied that the objects of the meeting will be attained. The conference will adjourn December 21st and will re-assemble about January 7th.

CARNEGIE'S GREAT GIFT.

Offers to Give the Nation $15,000,000 Additional.

Washington, December 18.—President Roosevelt, Secretary Root and Andrew Carnegie conferred at the White House today on Mr. Carnegie's gift of $10,000,000 to the nation for educational purposes. Mr. Carnegie remained to lunch with the President, after which he returned to New York.

It was said after the conference that the difficulties in the way of accepting the gift had been largely cleared away.

It was also asserted after the conference that Mr. Carnegie had offered to increase the gift from time to time, so that the ultimate endowment would reach the sum of $25,000,000.

Mr. Root declined to make any statement as to the results of the conference. Mr. Root was invited to the conference for two reasons—first, because he is from New York, and, secondly, because of his experience in legislative matters.

The gift, it is reported, will be in the shape of cash or unobjectionable bonds.

ANTI-BOER RIOT.

Members of Parliament Almost Mobbed and Many Hurt.

London, Dec. 19.—David Lloyd George, M. P., in speaking in Birmingham town hall tonight, precipitated a scene unprecedented in that city since the Aston Park riots.

The audience was hostile to the speaker on account of his pro-Boer and anti-Chamberlain utterances. The building was besieged from the outside by a mob of several thousand people, who smashed the windows and tried to force the doors, which had been barricaded. They fustigated the audience with stones through the windows.

A number of persons were injured, and the town hall was completely wrecked. Not a single window was left whole.

The students of Birmingham University, which was founded by the efforts of Mr. Chamberlain, held a meeting of protest yesterday, and crowds were awaiting admission to the building long before the town hall was opened. The building filled quickly, and it was immediately seen that trouble was coming.

While the organist was playing the dissenters began to sing "Britons Never Will Be Slaves," and kept it up until the organist was compelled to desist. Then cheers were raised for "Joey." A white flag was unfurled, amid deafening shouts of "Traitor!" as Mr. Lloyd-George and his friends appeared on the platform. All attempts at speech-making were futile, owing to the continuous din of hissing, hooting and singing.

In the meantime the enormous crowd outside the building had become more noisy and menacing. Presently a stone came through a window. This caused a stampede among the occupants of the gallery. From this time forward pandemonium reigned in the building, and ugly rushes were made for the platform. The police were soon overpowered. Mr. Lloyd-George and his friends were compelled to retreat to an inner room for safety. They were unable to leave the building for fear of mob violence, and were thus kept prisoners until a late hour, when Mr. Lloyd-George, disguised as a chief constable, left the town hall with a posse of policemen. Many constables were seriously injured in their attempts to clear the streets, which they did not succeed in doing until a heavy downfall of rain and sleet came to their assistance.

It was rumored that one civilian had died of injuries received. Several arrests for resisting the police have been made. At a meeting held outside the town hall resolutions of confidence in the Government were adopted. This meeting sent the following telegram to Mr. Chamberlain:

"Lloyd-George, the traitor, was not allowed to say a word. The citizens have passed a resolution expressing confidence in the Government and their admiration of your unique and fearless services for King and country."

Estimates of the number of demonstrators vary from 10,000 to 50,000 persons.

AN EPOCH MAKER.

J. P. Morgan Champions Labor and Fights Great Scheme.

New York, Dec. 18.—The true epoch-making labor conference that ended today had its origin in the mind of J. Pierpont Morgan. Credit for the immensely beneficial results for labor and capital alike, expected from it, will be given to the Wall-street genius of organization. Morgan, the man of money, the embodied spirit of corporate influence, is about to prove himself, after all, the greatest friend of the man who works. His aim is the establishment of a Board of Arbitration that shall be really effective. It must include the biggest men, men of the widest influence, not alone among capitalists and organized wage owners, but upon a general public opinion. The arbitrators should be in a position to command such respect from both sides as to dispel all misunderstandings.

New York, Dec. 17.—A Committee of Mediation, Arbitration and Conciliation is the outcome of the great conference between the representatives of labor and capital. This committee is to act as a connecting bond between the employer and the employed. The committee is composed of the following:

For the employer—Senator Marcus A. Hanna, Charles M. Schwab, Samuel R. Galloway, Charles A. Moore, John D. Rockefeller, Lewis Nixon, William H. Pfahler, E. P. Ripley, Marcus M. Marks, Julius Kruttschnitt, H. H. Vreeland and James A. Chambers.

For the employee—Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, F. P. Sargent, T. J. Shaffer, James Duncan, Daniel J. Keefe, Martin Fox, James E. Lynch, Edward E. Clarke, Henry White, Walter MacArthur, James O'Connell.

For the public—Grover Cleveland, Cornelius N. Bliss, Charles Francis Adams, Bishop H. C. Potter, Archbishop John Ireland, Charles W. Eliot, Franklin MacVeagh, James H. Eckels, John McCook, John G. Milburn, Charles I. Bonaparte and Oscar Straus.
